From: Financial Times Briefing <FT@emailbriefings.ft.com>
To: ehbarak1@gmail.com
CC:
Date: Thu, 9/19/2013 8:29:17 AM
Subject: In today's FT: Fed holds the line onbond buying, Emerging markets ...

To view this email as a webpage, click here

Thursday September 19 2013

UK HOMEPAGE

Fed holds the line on bond buying

The decision suggests that the Federal Reserve, under Ben Bernanke, wants to see lower long-term interest rates

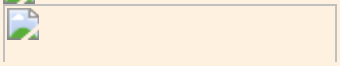
Emerging markets soar on Fed surprise

JPMorgan braced for action over 'whale'

VIDEO

Philips: In better health

After a turbulent decade Philips has impressed by meeting targets and shaving costs. Lex's Vincent Boland and Nikki Tait discuss the growing demand for efficient lighting and state-of-the-art healthcare equipment



US HOMEPAGE

Google explores cookie alternatives

A new type of personal identifier that could replace cookies and might make it easier for internet users to take greater control over information that advertisers can gather

Grand Theft Auto steals Call of Duty record

Arctic ice melting even faster, UN finds

EUROPE HOMEPAGE

Don’t bring your guns, says Starbucks

The new policy underscores the delicate balance retailers are trying to strike as they face pressure from gun control and gun rights advocates

Brazil’s Petrobras steps up data security

Greece protest at Golden Dawn stabbing

ASIA HOMEPAGE

India stands firm on financial reform

India is to press ahead with tax and investment reforms in spite of an forthcoming general election campaign likely to usher in populist measures

Price rise fears fuel China real estate

Oracle navigates choppy earnings outlook

WORLD NEWS

Berlusconi vows to continue despite conviction

Silvio Berlusconi says he will continue leading Italy’s centre-right party outside parliament despite his conviction for tax fraud

Merkel campaign gains traction in east

Portugal faces S&P debt downgrade threat

Hollande says French taxes are ‘too much’

COMPANIES NEWS

SEC says US groups must disclose pay data

Under rules proposed by SEC, Public companies will have to reveal the remuneration gap between chief executives and ordinary workers

Syngenta unveils plan to boost yields

Trading houses sow the seeds of change

Nissan to start producing cars in Myanmar

Former Barclays staff sign DoJ probe deal

MARKETS

Mexico hedges oil output at record price

Concerns about rising production costs mean that long-term prices have remained high and oil-producing nations are able to finance growing budgets

Brussels eyes toughest benchmark rules

Funds begin to back European banks

Investors' euro bets may get German jolt

Let money leave China to ease pressures

COMMENT

Why taxi cab drivers cannot put down their smartphones

Every Silicon Valley buzz-phrase – the app economy, the sharing economy, social networking, the internet of things – has converged on the industry

Beijing's net crackdown will be tested

Yellen is the best choice to lead the Fed

Britain needs a new wave of new towns

Business as usual in Washington

MANAGEMENT

Why big IT projects crash

The history of embarrassing failures offers clues to where things tend to go wrong but those lessons are still being ignored

Employers can help in the grammar war

The shortlist: Finalists worthy of a bruising debate

Manage email | Forward this email

Feedback | Manage portfolio

Subscribe to the FT

Follow the FT

Unsubscribe | My Account | RSS | Privacy Policy | About Us | Help

© THE FINANCIAL TIMES LTD 2013

You have received this email because you have signed up from the NBE preference page.

This email was sent by a company owned by Pearson plc, registered office at 80 Strand, London WC2R 0RL.

Registered in England and Wales with company number 53723.